WARRANTY INFORMATION

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR MATTRESS

MATTRESS CARE

1. Never bend an innerspring mattress
2. Never bend a foam mattress more than 30°
3. Do not get your mattress wet
4. Use a quality bed frame. To avoid structural damage and voiding of your warranty, queen and king sets must be used with a rigid center support with a leg or bed slats.
5. If you purchased a mattress only, it must be supported by a quality comparable box spring or foundation.
6. Do not use an iron or apply excessive heat to your mattress.
7. We suggest that you use a mattress cover or pad to protect your mattress; a soiled mattress voids the manufacturer's warranty

IMPORTANT - BODY IMPRESSIONS VS. SAGGING...THERE'S A BIG DIFFERENCE

Many of today's top-quality mattresses use extra-plush foams and fibers to create comfort layers designed to cradle your body and relieve pressure. In the first few weeks you sleep on a new mattress with extra comfort support layers, you will likely notice some body impressions on the surface. These impressions are normal. They indicate that the comfort layers are conforming to your body, as they are supposed to do, and should not be considered a sign that something is wrong with your mattress.

SETTLING ON EITHER SIDE OF A KING-SIZE MATTRESS IS NORMAL.

King box springs and foundations are 2-piece units with supportive rods under the mattress center. It is normal for all king mattresses to experience some settling on either side of these rods - this is not a manufacturing defect.

USE, CARE & WHAT YOU MIGHT EXPECT FROM A FOAM MATTRESS

1. This warranty does not include a normal increase in softness of the visco material or a decrease in the slow recovery feature. These aspects do not affect the pressure-relieving qualities of the foam.
2. Your foam mattress is sensitive to temperature and humidity. In rooms of 65°F or less, or low humidity, the mattress will become somewhat firmer. However, it will readily warm and respond to your body temperature when you lie on it. Due to the temperature-sensitivity of the material, we do not recommend using an electric blanket or heating pad with the mattress. If your mattress has been subjected to temperature lower than 40°F, it is important that you let the mattress naturally conform to its new environment.
3. As with any new mattress, it may take time to become accustomed to your new foam mattress. Most people are very comfortable using their new mattress on the first night. Others, however, may need several days to adjust to the unique feeling. Sleep on the quilted side only - this is a no-flip mattress.
4. Due to its manufacturing process, this mattress may retain a slight odor. All foam materials have this characteristic; think of the way a new car smells. Due to the extremely high density of the foam, it may carry the factory odor for up to 3 weeks. This is normal and harmless.
